- (spagnolo - Ximena): Hello everyone! Finally, Run4unity is here!
- (portoghese - Natalia) The third edition of Run4unity!
- (italiano – Marta) We are here in the studio of Rocca di Papa near Rome, (Italy) and we're specially prepared for today's event: RUN4UNITY TV broadcasting the worldwide relay of the 'Teens for unity'!
- (inglese – Ryan) We are connected through the internet with many countries of the five continents. Together with us, they will follow us around the world to witness the time zones within 24 hours.
- Through the links and news which are continuously arriving on our site www.run4unity.net, we will be updated in real time.
- (portoghese – Natalia) And now let's present ourselves? Name and provenance
- (portoghese – Natalia) We are the Teens for unity and we are part of the Focolare movement diffused in 182 countries of the world.
- (italiano – Carlotta) We are Christians of various Churches. We belong from different cultures, religions and convictions. Our objective is the ideal of unity of Chiara Lubich, which is has its source in the Gospel.
- (inglese – Ryan) Run4unity is already on, they are already running, and they will run in 190 cities around the world!
- (italiano – Marta) Contemporaneously, another event is taking place in the European continent: "Together for Europe" promoted by a network of Christian movements and communities whose commitment is to revive the Christian soul of the continent, through seven 'yes': to life, to family, to the environment...
- (italiano - Carlotta) We correlated these 'yes' with our mathematical signs
The + sign indicates the yes to responsibility
The : sign expresses the yes to a fair economy
The % sign refers to the yes to life and family
The x sign means yes to creation

The – sign is the yes to solidarity

The = sign sums up the yes for peace

(italiano – Riccardo) Now, let's look what's happening in some places in the world: above all from here we could tell who already finished the relay

(inglese – Ryan) In New Zealand, the R4U of Wellington which have started 11 hours earlier.

(portoghese – Natalia ) And also in Australia: Sidney, Melbourne, Perth ( connected through the internet)

( if the linkup is not possible) the Run4Unity 2012 is officially started in Porirua, Wellington, New Zealand! There were around 70 from different backgrounds and cultures. The Teens for Unity, lead the whole programme. They welcomed everyone with games and shared the spirit and message of Run4Unity. Afterwards in 3 groups they went out into the community to pick up litter in a park close by and in surrounding streets. After a yummy afternoon tea, they had the chance to continue getting to know each other. Before leaving, they shared their impressions and took up the challenge to go back to their homes, schools and neighbourhoods taking the spirit of Run4Unity! Many of those who came for the first time, want to stay in touch with them! Now they pass the baton on to the rest of the world, keeping unity with all of you .... as the Run 4 Unity continues!! Kia kaha!!

(spagnolo – Ximena) And while in some cities, to able participate Run4unity have anticipated a favorable date for the relay. For instance in Jordan, the relay was held in a town north of Amman, Aljoun with initiatives made related to the mathematical signs; sports games, music and dances performed by Christians and Muslims teenagers. A teenage girl writes "I understood to bring love to all places in this world we need to work together." To draw and paint in a school wall the mathematical signs and their meaning letting others to see the signs of brotherhood. The day ended with the reading of a message for peace.

(italiano - Riccardo) In Tlemcen, Algeria, christians and muslims joined the relay together. We let the teens4unity of the place to narrate the event.

(italiano - Carlotta) The relay in Central Africa and Kenya with their multi cultured and multi religious activities.

In Russia and Moscow, the relay reached The Red Square and Bolshoi theater.

(italiano – Marta) Our time is about to finish, but we can't conclude without giving first what we will see on the next relay participated by different teens agers coming from different religions; Hebrew, muslims, hindi, Buddhist and Sikh.

(inglese – Ryan) The next relay will start in HK and Macau, Philippines,Japan, Thailand ( 2 relay near Bangkok), India (Coimbatore, New Delhi, Mumbai) Pakistan ( Karachi e Lahore)

(spagnolo – Ximena) Ciao! See you on our next transmission at 14:00 Italian time.
